No flag but the Old Flag—the Red White and Blue
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it—we sound the alarm

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 9 1862

The Jeff Davis Union Party and Compromise

Compromise is the whole weight of old mother Wait's song We propose to examine this matter and search it to the bottom We ask in candor, On what basis would you compromise? and the answer, and the only one so far as we know, is You are an abolitionist. Now, we insist, first, that the Wait party give us their own ideas of what they wish to compromise, and not only this but that they shall show us that their Southern brethren, as they call Davis & Co, will accept this compromise. Tell us, ye lights of Charleston democracy, do you intend to see a compromise that in 1864 Jeff Davis shall be or may be a candidate for President of these States? Shall Toombs, Mason, Slidell, Clemens, Clay, again occupy high places in the Senate Chamber? Is Mallory to be Chairman on Naval Affairs, and Benjamin to be Secretary of State? Is Wigfall to be Minister to England, and Beauregard to represent us at the Court of Paris? Let us have your plan of compromise, gentlemen.

Our plan is to crush out this rebellion and to punish as they deserve the traitors who involved the country in so much misery We do not propose that these villains shall go unwhipt of Justice We wish to see those who were not born to be hung, wanderers and vagabond fugitives over the face of the earth And allow us to say to this whining, hypocritical peace party, that after this war is closed, the Constitution, the Union, the Republic saved, that every man who opposed the constituted authorities of Government in their sublime attempt to preserve inviolate the inheritance of the past, will be pointed at with the finger of scorn like the tories of the Revolution; aye, even down to the third and fourth generation

The whole truth of the matter is, that if the Wait and Miller, peace-compromise party should carry this State in the coming election, it would raise hallelujahs in the remotest corners of rebeldom, and everywhere through out the loyal States the name of Oregon would be associated with curses and anathemas

LATER FROM VICTORIA —By last night's mails we have Victoria dates to the 5th inst From the British Colonist we glean the following items of news

Aime Marchand, the assayer, found guilty of "selling goods entrusted to his care for a special purpose," was yesterday brought before Chief Justice Cameron for sentence He was sent to the Victoria jail for one year

Five miners while camping out had been robbed of everything they possessed during the night of the 29th ult Indians are supposed to be the guilty parties

The Fire Department of Victoria, had a grand parade on the first of May

A Canadian by the name of Lewis was found dead on the sidewalk on the 1st inst.

Uncle Sam is beginning to strike back at the vampire contractors who have been taking advantage of his necessities to bleed him Recently, at Cincinnati, a contractor, named Colby, was placed under arrest, charged with having embezzled forty two pieces of Government cloth, while filling an order for the army He was held over in the sum of $1,500 by the United States Commissioner In the United States Commissioners' Court in Boston, a man named Thomas Rossetor has also been held for trial on a charge of defrauding the United States of a naval outfit

Paymaster McKean Buchanan, who was on board the United States frigate Congress at the time of the disaster, in making a report to the Department, says "Just before the sanguinary engagement I volunteered my services to Lieut Commanding Jos B Smith for duty on either of the upper decks although the rebel steamer Merrimac was commanded by my own brother (Franklin Buchanan, late of Washington Navy Yard) when I received an order to take charge of the berth deck division, which order I promptly obeyed, and, thank God, I did some service to my beloved country"

The friends of Gen Wool at Troy N Y are endeavoring to have him made a full Major General, his rank to take effect from February 23d, 1847, when his commission of Brevet Major General was made out This would make him outrank Major Generals McClellan, Fremont, Halleck, Hitchcock Banks, Dix, Butler, Hunter and Grant all of whom are now the old veteran's superior officers The capture of Norfolk would insure him the rank

Letter from 'A Democrat'

PORTLAND May 4 1862

Historical reminiscences of the past will sometimes swell up from the deep recesses of the human heart, and the history of the past will pass as it were in review before us We can sometimes, I think, well profit by comparing the past with the present and thus more correctly ascertain the position we occupy whether we are consistent or inconsistent in reference to any preconceived opinions or theory, either political or otherwise which we have heretofore held to and acted upon

Now I see that in the present political revolution that is striking at the very foundation of our Government, there is still that desire in good men to maintain the semblance of consistency This is right though it may to a certain extent lead us to occupy a position, in the eyes of the casual observer, that places us in a view that we, upon reflection can never wish to occupy

In the present Union organization there are many who have always acted with and voted for the party known as the democratic party Men of this class, as well as those who have always acted with the opposite party pride themselves upon their consistency and I wish to maintain it Hence there are many good and true democrats, I will say all good and true democrats, are sound and true Union men They will go for the support of the Administration in power, and sustain its existence for the term of four years, whether its measures be politic or in accordance with their policy of administration or not Yet the timid shrink when they are charged by so doing with having left the old democratic party, with having become abolitionists.

Now to such I will say, one word by way of interrogatory—I speak to our democrats Do you remember the Blue Light Federalists of 1812-14, who, when our country was engaged in war with mighty England, sided with our enemy, and signaled along our coasts that defenceless towns and cities might be taken, burnt and sacked? that called the war an unholy war? Madison's war? charged that the President then acted in violation of the Constitution? that those who aided in any way, either by personal services or by loaning money to the Government to sustain the nation in the prosecution of the war, should be looked upon as enemies to the country? Do you remember the party of a party, led off from fealty to our country in the war of 1840, who sided with the enemy with whom we were then in war? Do you remember how, then, the true democracy and the good whigs scorned and spoke their anathemas against those who sought to tarnish our national honor and sided with the enemies of our country? I look in vain to find in the list of names of those who, in 1812 and in 1840, sided with the enemy in arms against our country, the name of any democrat Democrats then stood him in sustaining the Government, never stopping to enquire then to know that the war was the nation's war—not Madison's war—not Polk's war.

The two wars referred to were under the Administration of democratic Presidents, it is true The same may be truly said of all other wars of lesser note, since the existence of our Government up to the present The present war is now raging, and is by far the most bloody, threatens more the destruction of our Government, and strikes at the very principles and axioms upon which our Government is based, than any or all the wars we have heretofore passed through have ever done

Now a question or two to old democrats who pride themselves, justly, upon their consistency Do you wish to place yourselves along side with the Blue Light Federalists of 1812? Is it consistent for old democrats in the first the only war that has, since the existence of our Government, been carried on or begun under any other than a democratic Administration, to place themselves upon the level with, to occupy the position that Blue Light Federalists did in 1812? Is it not more consistent for honest democrats, now, to show that heretofore they have been honest in their acts and avowed principles, disinterested lovers of the best interests of their country—to sustain the present Administration through the present struggle to sustain a national existence, without inquiring whether it is Lincoln's war or whether it is the nation's war?

Democrats, to be consistent, must not in time of war, stop to inquire into the justness of the war Is not this so? Take the teachings of the past, and well and truly answer Reflect upon the above suggestions and answer me Do you wish, in the future history of your country, to be classed with the tory opposers of your country in the struggle of 1776, 1812, or 1846-7? Can you, by your acts and votes, consistently now act for or with those who have heretofore always sided, in time of war with the enemy with whom we were fighting Can you do so without becoming traitors to the charge that heretofore you have only acted up on partisan feelings rather than from disinterested love of country? Is not true democracy to live up to and sustain our Government, whether administered by a democratic President or otherwise?

A DEMOCRAT

From Columbia County

ST HELENS, May 7th, 1862

EDITOR OREGONIAN

That your numerous readers may know that the Union men of Columbia county are not idle I desire to say that we have held our Convention and made our nominations as follows Representative for Washington and Columbia counties—H W Conyers County Judge—B D Stevens, County Clerk—James A Kerns, Sheriff—C G Caples, Treasurer—James G Hunter Assessor—Simon Miller Superintendent of Schools—Edward Hendricks Coroner—T H Taylor County Commissioners—I F Galloway and William Watts All Union men to the core You may depend upon it the Unionmen of Columbia County will do their duty in this contest When the question at issue is Union or Disunion, the true patriot no longer of his country, can be Hy or uncommitted We expect to carry out County for the Union ticket, and hope every County in the State will do the same.

From the Upper Columbia and the Mines

From the Dalles Mountaineer we glean the following items

The water in the Columbia is several feet higher than usual at this time of the year and the Dalles people are apprehensive of another flood

GOOD DUST.—The Times brought down Lewiston on Monday about $60,000 in treasure

SALMON RIVER.—Reports from Salmon river are favorable Mr Stanford says that parties who went in last fall and now have their claims open are taking out at the rate of $500 to $600 a day

FROM LEWISTON.—Wm A Yates Esq., just down from Lewiston, informs us that at the time he left danger was apprehended from a flood The water was very high in the Snake river, and had backed the Clearwater up to such an extent as to cause that stream to overflow its banks An additional rise of four or five feet would lay the business portion of the town under water From Mr Y. we learn that lumber is very scarce at Lewiston and is the influence everything like building is kept at a stand still Yates & Lang, Jagger & Co Jewett & Co and the proprietors of the Hotel are the owners of all the wooden structures in the town—The balance of the business men occupy tents but in one or two instances what are known as 'shakes' The Indian Agent no longer interposes obstacles in the way of the erection of permanent improvements but until means are devised to procure lumber but little can be done in that direction Robie's steam saw mill had been got under way, but at last accounts the water was within a foot and a half of the furnace, and it was supposed that work in the mill would be temporarily interrupted Provisions of all kinds had been very scarce at Lewiston, but one or two trips of the boats would suffice to replenish the market Bacon had been selling at 75 cents but immediately on the arrival of the Peytona, fell to 37½ Flour had been up to $35 per hundred, but is now held at from $20 to $25

STEAMBOAT BUSINESS.—The Oregon Steam Navigation Company have the steamers Idaho, Hassalo and Wasp, constantly plying between the Dalles and Cascades In addition to these they have chartered all the steamers on the River, and with all these facilities are unable to meet the demand for transportation

ENGLISH BOUNDARY COMMISSION.—Last week Colonel Hawkins, Captains Hague and Lord and Lieuts Anderson and Wilson of the British Boundary Commission, passed through this place on their way to England via Victoria, having finished the work They commenced operations one year later than the American party, and have been in the field four years The work done consists in a road or trail varying from 6 to 30 feet wide along the 49th parallel of north latitude, from the Rocky Mountains, and has cost the British Government on their part over $200,000 a year, besides outside expenses unconnected with the surveying party The barracks at Colville cost $20,000. These are described Captain Darrogh, and most of the supplies and mules, went along the coast to examine the road again that all might be correct. Last summer a detached party was sent to explore the Columbia about the lakes and geologically speaking prospects of gold are abundant Though these gentlemen, we learn that about 40 men are at work on the lakes, and those who came down, purchased provisions and at once returned

NEW PRECINCTS.—The Board of County Commissioners have established election precincts on the John Day, Grand Ronde and Powder River It is estimated that these new precincts will cast in the neighborhood of two thousand votes

Feed of every description is scarce at the Dalles The ruling price for barley, for weeks back has been $3 per hundred pounds Oats rules at about the same figure Wheat, there is none in the market

There is a great scarcity of lumber at the Dalles and the most inferior building material commands $40 per thousand

Pack-trains are daily leaving the Dalles for Powder River mines

CONFISCATION OF REBEL PROPERTY.—The following emanates from the Commanding General on the Pacific Coast

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE PACIFIC
SAN FRANCISCO, April 30th 1862

Whereas it having come to the knowledge of the undersigned, that the rebel certain persons in this State have left their homes and the rebel government, civil, and abetting the enemies of the United States, and that such persons or persons are owners of real estate or personal property within the limits of this Military Department, it is hereby declared that all such estate or property are subject to confiscation for the use and benefit of the United States

It is further declared That all sales or transfers of real estate or personal property, by any person or persons holding office under the rebel government or who may be aiding and assisting the enemies of the Union whether made by them personally or by their agents shall be null and void

By Command of Brig General G. WRIGHT
U S Army, Commanding

FREE CHINESE OATH.—The following is reported as a true translation of the oath written up on yellow tissue paper and administered in our Courts at San Francisco to all Chinese witnesses

Now in the presence of the Great Mandarin in the Celestial Land I give my evidence to speak according to the truth, If in my want to honor I shall utter false words or deceive the Spiritual Intelligence (gods) may trust me. Wherefore I spit on the yellow paper before Imperial Heaven for illumination and examination

One of the Chicago artillerymen, Taylor's battery who received a wound in the leg while on the hospital, a mile or more, had the ball extracted, and then insisted on going back to his battery The surgeon refused, when he promptly said Come put on some of your flax until we go back

HELPING A STEAMBOAT IN DISTRESS.—Yesterday morning while the Vancouver, Capt. Turnbull, was proceeding on her usual trip from Vancouver to this place, he found the new steamer Addlaide at the head of Haiden's Island, in the Columbia river, adrift, her machinery having got out of order. But for the timely appearance of the Vancouver and her commander there is no telling but the Addlaide might have gone to sea. Captain Ladd safely towed her to this port. We have not learned whether the crew of the Addlaide drew any salvage.

HIGH RIVER.—At nine o'clock last night, the Willamette at this point had been on a stand for about four hours. The twenty-four hours previous, the water had raised about four inches.

THE PRACTICE.—We notice quite a number of young s playing around the banks of the river. At the present high state of the river parents should forbid their children to go near the river, for should they slip down the bank they would certainly get into the water and in all probability lose thier lives.

AGAIN.—The captain of the Ferry boat made several ineffectual attempts to remove the big snag in the river, which to some extent obstructed the passage of the boat in landing at the foot of Salmon street. The snag was imbedded so deep that the power of the steamer was inadequate to the task. Try again, Captain Ladd.

PACK TRAIN.—A pack-train of fifty of mules that have arrived here this week passed through the city yesterday en route for the Salmon country.

ARRIVAL.—The bark Sam Merritt sailed yesterday for Oak Point to take on a cargo of lumber for the San Francisco market.

The Columbia river at Fort Vancouver was falling yesterday at the rate of half inch per hour.

FOUND.—The body of an unknown man was taken out of the Columbia river, near Ankeny & Co.'s warehouse, at the Cascades, on the 2d inst. The following is a description of the man: Stout built, about five feet nine inches high, old scar over left eye, dark whiskers, light hair, high forehead; had on overshirt, grey satinet pants and overalls, heavy iron-heel boots. Around his neck small calf wallet containing some money; one Colt's revolver, cal. 36 in. Any information concerning the matter will be given by A. G. Bradford, Agent O. S. N. Co. at The Dalles, O. T.

THE WAR.—The War Bureau of the Rebel Government has issued the following order: "Ordered, That the letters heretofore used in the manufacture of Confederate States postage stamps, hereafter the five cent stamps issued will be printed in red, and the ten cent stamps red." Is the change for the better?

PORTLAND, May 8th, 1862.

MR. EDITOR:—I am sure, from your well known sense of justice and impartiality, that you will, I am sure, induce you to give place to the following remonstrance against the "Ordinance recently passed by our City Council," an act not only pecuniarily affecting myself to a great amount amounting to the absolute destruction of a legitimate and respectable business, but indirectly affecting my character, by placing me out as the one to whom the Ordinance is particularly intended to apply. The Ordinance passed last evening, taxing Auctioneers to pay yearly in City $400, Night Auctioneers $500! Why this disparity between the two taxes? Why the latter tax affects me, and like "Cæsar's wife" I wince under the feeling of being held forth as approbrious, an unlawful and upright business, as one to be by monstrous taxation be strangled or suppressed in its infancy. I claim to be an honest man, to pursue an honest calling, and because I have facilities of purchasing at low rates, and am satisfied with small profits, am I to be singled out and pointedly taxed for the purpose of gratifying the desires of an aristocracy of cent per cent usurers? The law was conceived in sin, born in iniquity, and if matured, will be a lasting disgrace to this city as an evidence of one sided, and oppressive legislation. In every other city of California, night auctions are considered and placed on the same footing as day sales. In San Francisco the yearly license is $100; in the other counties, $60. In conclusion, I have to hope that the sound, liberal principles of our worthy Mayor, will induce him to withhold his sanction to a measure which will be a lasting stigma to the principles which always control free trade.

SHERWIN BROS.

The sudden changes of our climate are productive of Pulmonary, Bronchial, and Asthmatic Affections having proved that simple remedies often effect a cure, and certainly when taken in the early stages of this disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by neglecting a more serious attack may be effectually prevented. SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them relieve the throat when taking cold, and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

MARRIED:

In this city, on the 8th inst., by Rev. T. H. Pearne, Mr. John L. Sickler to Miss Marian, all of San Francisco, Cal. No papers please copy.

Agency Notice.—M. L. P. FISHER is our only authorized Agent in San Francisco to receive advertisements, and transact business for the DAILY and WEEKLY OREGONIAN. Office—No. 17½ Washington street, nearly opposite Maguire's Opera House.

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest honors are awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Hence is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has only equalled him in this country, as a proof of which the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary M. D. degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in correspondence, please enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal. june26dawly

Information of James B. Hughes Wanted.

JAMES B. HUGHES is supposed to have been a resident of Portland, Oregon. For about ten years past his friends in Michigan have not heard from him. A short time since it was understood by his friends in Michigan that he had died some time about the date of March, 1861, and that he left a large amount of property. In person he was a short and thick-set man, of dark complexion; sharp-featured, and by occupation a lumber-dealer and commission merchant, owning extensive lumber and flouring mills.—His present age, if he were living, would be about forty-one years. He went to California in 1849. His former residence was Chicago, Ill. It is supposed that he left a wife and two children, but that they are since deceased.

Should any citizen of Oregon or Washington Territory, or California, possess any knowledge of this James B. Hughes, and will communicate the same to the editor of this paper or the undersigned, a great favor will be conferred, which will be duly acknowledged.

The Three Travelling-Bags.

"Well, I'll go to— No, tell him to come here."

"Sorry to disturb you, sir," said M. P. with a huge brass star on his breast, appearing with great alacrity at the waiter's elbow. "B'lieve this is your black valise?"

"Yes, that is ours, certainly. It has Julia's fine lady's things in it."

"Suspicious circumstances about that 'ere valise, sir. Telegraph come this mornin, that a burglar started on the 8:45 Philadelphia train, with a lot of stolen spoons in black valise. Spoons marked T. B.—watched at the Ferry—saw the black valise—followed it up here—took a peek inside. Sure enough there was the spoons—marked T. B., too. Said it was yours. I shall have to take you in charge."

"Take me in charge?" echoed the dismayed bridegroom. "But I assure you, my dear sir, there is some strange mistake. It's all a mistake."

"S'pose you'll be able to account for the spoons being in your valise, then?"

"Why, I—I—it isn't mine. It must be somebody else's. Somebody has put them there. It is some villainous conspiracy."

"Hope you'll be able to tell a straighter story before the magistrate, young man, 'cause if you don't you stand a smart chance of being sent up for six months."

"Oh, Charles! this is horrid. Do send him away." Oh dear! I wish I was home," sobbed the little bride.

"I tell you, sir," said the bridegroom, hastening up with indignation' "this is all a villainous plot. What would I be doing with your paltry spoons? I was married this morning, in Fifth Avenue, and I'm on my wedding tour. I have high connections in New York.—You'll repent it, sir, if you dare to arrest me."

"Oh, come, now," said the incredulous official. "I've heern stories like that before.—This ain't the first time swindlers have travelled in couples. Do you s'pose I don't know nothin'? 'Tain't no use; you've just got to come along to the station house. Might as well go peaceably 'cause you'll have to."

"Charles, this is perfectly dreadful! Our wedding night in the station-house! Do send for somebody. Send for the landlord to explain it."

The landlord was sent for and came, the porters were sent for, and came, the waiters, and chambermaids, and bar room loungers came, without being sent for, and filled the room and adjoining hall,—some to laugh, some to say they wouldn't have believed it, but nearly all to exult that the happy pair had been "found out." No explanation could be given; and the upshot was, that, in spite of tears, threats, entreaties, rage, and expostulations, the unfortunate newly-married pair were marched down stairs, en route for the police office.

And here let the curtain drop on the melancholy scene, while we follow the fortunes of black valise No. 2.

CHAPTER III.

When the train stopped at Camden, four gentlemen got off, and walked arm-in-arm, rapidly and silently, up one of the by-streets, and struck off into a foot-path leading to a secluded grove outside the town. Of the first two, one was our military friend in a blue coat, apparently the leader of the party. Of the second two, one was a smiling, rosy little man, carrying a black valise. Their respective companions walked with hasty irregular strides, were abstracted and apparently ill at ease.

The party stopped.

"This is the place," said Captain Jones.

"Yes," said Doctor Smith.

The Captain and the Doctor conferred together. The other two studiously kept apart.

"Very well. I'll measure the ground, and do you place your man."

It was done.

"Now for the pistols," whispered the Captain to his fellow second.

"They are all ready, in the valise," replied the doctor.

The principles were placed, ten paces apart and wearing that decidely uncomfortable air a man has who is in momentary expectation of being shot.

"You will fire, gentlemen, simultaneously when I give the word," said the Captain. Then in an undertone, to the Doctor, "Quick, the pistols."

The Doctor, stooping over and fumbling at the valise, appeared to find something that surprised him.

"Why, what the devil—"

"What's the matter?" asked the Captain, striding up. "Can't you find the caps?"

"Deuce a pistol or cap, but this!"

He held up—a lady's night cap!

"Look here—and here—and here!"—holding up successively a hair brush, a long, white nightgown, a cologne bottle, and a comb.

They were greeted with a long whistle by the Captain, and a blank stare by the two principals.

"Confound the luck!" ejaculated the Captain, "if we haven't made a mistake, and brought the wrong valise!"

The seconds looked at the principals. Nobody volunteered a suggestion. At last the Doctor inquired.

"Well, what's to be done?"

"D—d unlucky!" again ejaculated the Captain. "The duel can't go on."

"Evidently not," responded the Doctor, unless they brain each other with the hair brush, or take a pop at each other with the cologne bottle."

"You are quite sure there are no pistols in the valise?" said one of the principals, with suppressed eagerness, and drawing a long breath of evident relief.

"We might go over to the city and get pistols," proposed the Captain.

"And by that time it will be dark," said the Doctor.

"D—d unlucky," said the captain again.

"We shall be the laughing stock of the town," conolingly remarked the Doctor, "if this gets wind!"

"One word with you, Doctor," here interposed his principal.

They conferred.

(To be concluded.)

The cheerful are the busy when Trouble knocks at your door or rings the bell, he will generally retire if you send him word you are 'engaged.'

"Pa," said a lad to his father "I often read of people noor but honest why don't they sometimes say rich but honest?" "Cut, my son," said his father, "nobody would believe them."

Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE

SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order; it should make a right and wrong stitch alike on both sides of the material, and should sew linen and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to use cotton, thread, silk or twist directly from the spool and to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin with rapidity and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less, so as to draw the under and upper threads and with uniformity, and should have a straight needle, curved ones being liable to break.

The needle should have a peculiar motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer, should stitch, fell, run and gather, and it was ready to work.

It should be able to make the same size thread on both sides of the work and by using different colored threads it can be made to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam and recommence sewing (basting) at the first stitch, and to run easily, and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel-feed—no others are in constant contact with the work.

It should not be liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to cut the operator's dress.

It should not form a ridge on the under side, as I have of

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S

Private Medical & Surgical Institute,

SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY,

Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Graduate and Resident Physician L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D. Late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Presburg, Hungary, the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Genito-Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Buffalo Medical College of Medicine.

☞ Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

Office Hours—From 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

☞ Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed or no pay. Consultation by letter or otherwise, FREE.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases the first great cause Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret disease—Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Pains in the Bones and Limbs, diseases of the Larynx, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other means, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure. The small sizes prescribed are given out without fee, for gratuitous advice, causing no sickness, no loss from industry or exposure. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have received from the lips of death many thousands, who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of many a miserable and many other diseases and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure in such cases can effected—a majority of cases, falling into old hands, in the incurable persons, who not only fill to cure the disease but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a premature consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not be of long speedily, and the victim survives the disease is entailed upon the children who are born with feeble constitutions and the current of life coursing through their veins, in accordance with the laws of nature, transmitting to their offspring all the evils of their parents, in the shape of scrofula, fetter worm eruptions of the skin, eyes that are inflamed, and many other forms of hereditary existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is an all-powerful enemy to health for nothing else in the human catalogue figures there are causes in destructive a drain upon the system—leaving it in a state of irritation that when a few years of stirring have passed an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system rapidly passes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, unfits for marriage, society, business, and all enjoyments, and, leaves the victim a wreck in body and mind predisposed to consumption, insanity and a train of evils to be ended than death itself. With full confidence I assure the afflicted that no other treatment and speedy cure can be effected than with the above department of which my patients can be certain of restoration to vigorous health.

Irregularities, and all diseases of a delicate nature treated on principles established by fifteen years of practical research and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures.—Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the United States and Washington Territory, by addressing a communication, free of charge.

All business conducted strictly confidential. All letters DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Physician, Surgeon, corner of Sacramento street, between Montgomery and Kearny streets, over Haas & Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three sufferers from the pangs of disease, who have recovered their former health, and in public gratitude make known their cases and remedial agent, in their statement on authentication, by a Notary Public. The remedy has only been introduced to the notice of the afflicted, but we command their perusal to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate—The undersigned, desirous of assisting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a person can get relief from suffering, may be obtained for the asking by calling on, or addressing, by express from us, a free gratuitous to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, to the remarkable recovery of his health from the distressing symptoms incident to the secret practices of youth, the passion in youth developed in body and mind, unfitting the performance of the married state, rendering the ordinary vocations of life unpleasant, and the mind unfitted for the enjoyment of life, and whose first symptoms of disease are shunned by the inexperienced—but alas, after a few weeks, or in several instances, months of their treatment, [illegible] my minute horror that instructed relief was impossible, and [illegible] more alarming in their torture and [illegible] my disease being pronounced incurable, the brain medicine would be of little consequence, despaired for as I regarding my health, strength and energy, and a long career, with but a faint hope called upon Dr. Czapkay, who after examining my case pronounced the disease curable, which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I proceeded to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear and my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and [illegible] weakness of my limbs, the nervous irritation of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of resolution, the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, [illegible] pearled, and in fact in two months after my [illegible] the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new [illegible] but a short time ago I contemplated to [illegible] hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate [illegible] into the snares of incompetent quacks, I [illegible] offer this testimony to the merit and skill of [illegible] and recommend him to all who may stand in [illegible] of advice, being assured by my own experience [illegible] under his care a radical and permanent cure will [illegible].
